

Letter of Recommendation

September 25th, 2024

I found Gabriel to be a well-prepared, well-resourced, and very diligent worker. He works smart as well as working hard and he is able to both capture the broader vision of a project or task and zoom in to complete the needed details. His knowledge of website building is very comprehensive and he took every new challenge in stride seamlessly. I have no hesitations in recommending him for whatever role he applies himself to. He is an asset to any organization that he is involved with.

Best regards,
